Tilden and Johnson Decide Honors Today

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 15.—William T. Tilden of this city and William M. Johnston of San Francisco, meet tomorrow on the courts of the Germantown Tennis Club to decide the national lawn tennis championship of the United States for 1922. Sole survivors of 123 players who a week ago swung racquets in quest of their title, they reached the final round by decisively defeating opponents of international calibre.

Johnston won from Vincent Richards of Yonkers, N. Y., 6-4; 6-2; 6-1 and Tilden eliminated Gerald L. Patterson of Australia 4-6; 6-4; 6-2, 6-1.

The meeting of "big and little Bill" on Saturday will be their third clash in championship of a national tournament. Johnston won the honor from Tilden in 1919 and the Philadelphia wrestled the title from Johnston a year later. A careful study of their records against each other shows an even closer and more interesting angle to their combat.

On the courts in tournament play they have met ten times and each has won five matches. These contests reduced to sets show that Tilden has won 20 to Johnston's 19.

Baby Tarzan Roams Harlem Wilds

JAMES SYRACUSE, HIS WIFE AND THEIR "PERFECT NATURE" CHILD.

By DUDLEY NIDDALE

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—All normal children could be "perfect nature babies" if their parents were willing to pay the price.

So says James Syracuse, father of New York's marvelous Tarzan child, Jimmy Syracuse, Jr., who is now 25 months old.

The price is high. Not in money, but in self-denial, self-restraint, study and never-ceasing watchfulness.

Yet, after observing Jimmy at his morning play among the fallen trees and shape-edged boulders of the precipitous heights plunging down to the Harlem river it is evident that Jimmy's youthful father and mother feel themselves adequately rewarded.

Jimmy's naked little body is toned to a life-guard brown; high-lighted by a shock of tow-colored hair and brilliant blue eyes. While his flesh is firm, it has all the softness and silky suppleness of babyhood.

Powerful muscles ripple under the skin of his arms, shoulders, back and less.

Feet Are Fascinating.

His feet are positively fascinating. They're big feet, with long toes which grip like sturdy fingers as the youngster swarms up rocky cliffs or unconcernedly walks the trunk of a dead tree overhanging chasms where a slip would mean instant death.

Where conditions of his travel through the wild fastness make it necessary he drops to all fours and continues on his way.

Jimmy has been compared to the agile ape. But as I gazed at his amazing antics I could think only of a roly-poly bear cub.

"The boy is being brought up under the 'natural methods' advocated by Dr. Elmer Lee, editor of Health Culture magazine," said the father.

"Think of the word 'nature' and you'll immediately perceive the fundamentals of Jimmy's training."

Foody Mother milk until he was 20 months old. Then five meals daily of vegetables, figs, dates and bananas. No milk, no cooked foods of any kind.

Twelve Hours' Sleep.

Sleep? From 6 at night to 6 in the morning, on a hard bed, with head lower than feet. No pillow. Wide open windows.

Toys? Rocks and sticks.

Clothes? None, summer or winter, except where the rigors of unsympathetic city ordinances make apparel necessary.

The father and mother are religious. Yet Jimmy will not go to church and he is 25.

"He must understand why he goes to church," said the father.

No school for Jimmy until he is 15. "Then," said James Syracuse Sr., "he will learn to read in six months, and be leading his classes in two years."

Father and mother were born in Italy. The father is 24. His wife is 21. They have been in America several years and were married in New York. The father is an American citizen and served in the army intelligence service during the war.

RANKIN'S BUNCH RARIN' TO GO AS TIME FOR CLASH WITH FLAG WINNERS DRAWS NEAR TO HAND

The stage is set and there is much interest among the fans over the big baseball classic at Amusement Park Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock when Amarillo's pennant winning West Texas Leagueers meet Amarillo's former stars of the diamond in a benefit game for the Gassers and local railroad shapen now on strike.

The ex-stars say they still have the old pep and they say Rankin Johnson will show up "these here Class D ball players." But Gassers fans tell a different story.

Committees were on the streets yesterday and a big advance sale of tickets is reported.

The game will be called at 3 o'clock and admission is 20 cents.

SOCIAL EVENTS TO MARK OPENING OF NEW STADIUM

Social events galore will make the opening of the new Stadium Tuesday. Miss Louise Palmer, sponsor for the Golden Sandstorm, is the central figure in almost all of these. She will christen the new field and also make the first kick-off of the season.

Miss Palmer and her four maids of honor will occupy a special box upon the playing field decorated in the school colors. This honor conferred upon Miss Palmer is the highest that can be paid to a girl in high school by the student body.

Sections in the new stands will be reserved for the student body of both schools and extended seating in all forms will be participated in. A big smoke dance between halves will be a real feature. Pep leaders, Miss Adrian Ottobury and Betty Greenhill, will lead the high school body in this novel stunt. In addition to the roosting the Panhandle Plains Chamber of Commerce is going to furnish a band for each school and the spectators will be flooded with lots of real music.

Couch Douglass put the Sandies through a stiff afternoon of signal work and also an hour and a half of skull practice last night. The coach is particularly strong for the skull work and he intends to prevent any slip due to lack of brain power. Quarterbacks Hayden and Vaughn were specially drilled and quired at the meeting last night in order to perfect the offensive play of the club. The boys will spend this morning in laying off the playing field at the Stadium and this afternoon they will go through their first workout on the new grounds. Practice will be held at 3 o'clock and the public is invited to come out and watch the workout as well as viewing the interior of the big bowl. The stadium is well worth your time to come out and see so if you are not busy this afternoon be sure and come out and give it the once over.

Clarendon realizes that even though they are playing a high school Tuesday they are up against one of the hardest games of the season and as a result Coach Burton is putting the Bull Dogs through a dizzy pace in order to be set or the fracas. Not a single item will be overlooked when he puts the final touches on today and Monday.

It is quite evident that the Amarillo boys are getting worked up over the approaching battle. It is the first time in the history of the school that there has been enough good material to make the locals a real contender for state high school honors and it is a foregone conclusion that the citizens of this city will back the boys to the last ditch. Up and at 'em Golden Sandstorm! You may not be a college team but show Clarendon that you are capable of playing a college game.

PLANS GO FORWARD FOR M'LEAN FAIR

Special to The News

M'LEAN, Sept. 15.—Preparations and plans are going forward toward the completion of the Gray County fair that is to be held in McLean on September 25 and 27. The fair will be under the supervision of the McLean Community Chamber of Commerce, the directors of which organization will have direct control of the entire two days of the fair, including the fair grounds, the housing, the concession and the exhibits. Committees have been appointed to look after each of these.

Although the lack of rain in this immediate vicinity has to some extent retarded the progress for exhibits all are united in the intention of making this the best fair that McLean has ever had. In spite of the lack of rain some of the farmers, especially those who owned sub-irrigation land, have produced the most perfect products this year that they have ever raised.

R. O. Dunkle offered at public auction last Saturday a pure bred gilt, the proceeds from the sale of which were to help pay the expenses of the winning club boys to the state fair at Dallas. The gilt was purchased by L. O. Dunkle for $11.00.

Boudes the club boys' exhibits the other best products will be entered at the state fair at Dallas.
